CEO UPDATE

Life continues to be busy here at Age Concern Auckland, as we not only maintain the level of service we provide but look to improve and increase across every aspect of our work. In the last financial year, we have seen our staff numbers grow and we have helped a greater number of older people than ever before. It has been a challenging 18 months-or-so for us all, as we have had to deal with the impact of COVID-19. For many of our members and for older people across the country, but particularly here in Auckland, it has been an unprecedented time of concern and worry. We should however be very grateful for how well New Zealand has dealt with the pandemic, and for those of us with family or friends overseas, we have heard of just how hard other parts of the world have suffered. I know from personal experience just how challenging it has been for older people in some countries. My eighty-six-year-old father saw my sister last month for the first time in eighteen months, even though they live in the same country.

The challenges haven't been just for individuals though. We have seen our funding come under increasing strain, as the long-term impact of COVID-19 lockdowns and global financial slow down have impacted many of the trusts and philanthropic foundations we rely on for support. In short, they have less money at a time when more organisations need help. This is one of the reasons we chose to launch our first ever public fundraising campaign – Oldie and a Goodie. We need to fundraise $1 million from the community each year to ensure that we can maintain the levels of support we currently provide and that are crucial to the most vulnerable older people in our communities.

It has been a very tough 18 months as we have seen an increasing number of older people reach out for help, against a declining level of funding availability. We have also seen an increase in the complexity and range of support needed. In response to this need, we have been very fortunate to expand our Community Connector team to provide the widest array of support to as many older people as possible.

In recent months, we have also seen some changes among our staff, not least we have said goodbye to Ray Law. Ray helped us establish our Asian Service four-and-a-half years ago and has steered its growth and development ever since. Ray decided to step down to allow fresh eyes and renewed energy to take the service to the next level, and we are very pleased to welcome Felix Lin on board as Asian Service Manager. Felix joins us with a wealth of experience and strong connections among Auckland's Asian community. Fluent in English, Mandarin and Cantonese, Felix will help us build on past success to further develop the breadth and depth of services to older Chinese across Auckland (and increasingly beyond).

Lastly, our team has also been busy getting vaccinated against COVID-19 to ensure that we can continue to provide services and support to older people in the most efficient, effective and safest way possible. I would urge everyone reading this, if you haven't already, book yourselves in for your vaccine, not only for your own safety but for the benefit of our community and New Zealand as a whole. I have had both my doses of vaccine and suffered no ill effects other than a slightly achy arm for a day-or-two.

Thank you for your continued support of Age Concern Auckland. Stay connected, stay well and stay safe.

Chair's report

Kia Ora everyone. I hope you have kept in good health during our wet and sometimes wild winter. Spring is upon us and with it comes more daylight, new growth and a more welcoming outdoors!

The close of our financial year on 30 June, marks the end of two years of an amalgamated Age Concern Auckland. It feels like yesterday we all came together from the north, the south and central parts of Auckland. Much like this time last year I thought I'd look at some of the highlights from the past 12 months.

We've continued to make outstanding progress, despite the global COVID-19 pandemic being our constant companion.

From 01 July 2020 – 30 June 2021 Age Concern Auckland has:

- Provided companionship to 619 older adults as part of our Visiting Service, totalling more than 40,000 hours of vital social connection
- Resolved 1,186 elder abuse enquiries
- Supported 507 people with case management to address elder abuse and neglect
- Provided community social work support to 502 older people
- Delivered 612 counselling services to help older people with age-related challenges
- Banked around $1million worth of volunteer hours supporting our network of clients
- Distributed 40,000 newsletters, like this one, to keep our supporters up to date with our news
- Delivered more than 160 health promotion activities and workshops reaching more than 2,600 older Aucklanders to help them age well
- Supported through our Asian Services team more than 3,200 Chinese or Korean speaking people through talks, social work support, activities, workshops or Zoom or in-person learning sessions
- Appeared frequently on national media talking about the key issues for older people such as living on superannuation, elder abuse and isolation and loneliness.

This is just a sample of the numbers in our annual report, which will be out soon and will have much more of the detail, showing how broad and deep our support for those who need it goes.

I touched on COVID-19 a little earlier on. A crucial component this year is the vaccine roll out. As I write in early August 731,000 Aucklanders have received the vaccine and across New Zealand more than 420,000 people over the age of 60 have had both doses. It is good to see older people getting the priority. And I hope if you've had the vaccine, it was not too painful and you feel more confident of being protected against the worst of the virus.

If you're unclear about the vaccine programme and want to know more the best contact is the Ministry of Health website www.covid19.govt.nz or you can call 0800 28 29 26 if you need to book a vaccine appointment.

I'm very proud of what Age Concern Auckland has achieved in the 2021 financial year. I'd like to thank all our staff, volunteers, members and supporters for the part they have played in our work. You are appreciated and valued every day.

Take care and please remember to get in touch if you need our support, we are here to help, however we can.

Victoria Walker Chair, Age Concern Auckland.

Sepsis, what you need to know

Knowledge is power and knowing the red flags and signs of sepsis can save your life, and the life of your loved ones.

What is sepsis? Sepsis (also known as “septicaemia” or “blood poisoning”) is a life-threatening complication of infection where the body’s immune response starts to damage its tissues and organs. It can affect every part of the body from head to toe.

How serious is sepsis? Some people with sepsis make a full recovery, especially if they are treated early. Others are left with lifelong disabilities, particularly where sepsis is not recognised or treated quickly. Overall, at least 10% of older people with sepsis die in hospital, and 60% of adults who survive an admission have a new physical or cognitive disability.

Why is it so important for the older generation to be aware of? As we get older our immune system doesn’t function as efficiently as it did when we were younger. Some people have medical problems or injuries which make infection more likely. When an infection does happen (such as a urinary tract infection, a skin infection like ‘cellulitis’, pneumonia, or an infection after a procedure or surgery) older people are less able to get it under control before sepsis takes over. The sooner we get medical treatment the better the outcome.

What are the signs of sepsis? Sepsis is not a simple cough, cold or fever. In fact, quite a lot of people with sepsis don’t have a high temperature when they get to hospital, and some even have low body temperatures. People will often have a sense that they are unwell with an infection before developing symptoms as the poisoning takes hold.

Seek medical help urgently if you or your loved one develops any or one of the following:

- Slurred speech or confusion, or difficult to wake
- Extreme shivering or muscle pain
- Passing no urine for a day
- Severe breathlessness or breathing very fast
- It “feels like you are going to die”
- Skin mottled, bluish, or pale or feels abnormally cold to touch

Visit the Sepsis Trust NZ website at sepsis.org.nz for more information. Article by Sepsis Trust NZ

Chicken, leek and pea pasta bake

Ingredients 2 Serves

- 1 T Oil
- 1 cup Shell shaped pasta or fettuccini
- 1 small (1 cup) Leek, roughly chopped
- 1 small clove Garlic peeled and finely chopped
- 1/4 cup Chicken stock
- 1/3 cup Frozen peas
- 1 small Courgette, diced
- 1/2 cup Chicken, cooked, diced
- 1/4 cup Milk
- 80g (1/3 250g punnet) Lite cottage cheese or lite ricotta
- 1 T Parsley or chives, chopped (optional)
- 1/4 cup Edam cheese
- 2 T Wholemeal breadcrumbs, seeds or walnuts, chopped

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 180 °c. Lightly grease a loaf tin.
2. Cook pasta in a medium saucepan of salted water until lightly undercooked. Drain water, run under cold water to prevent further cooking. Return to saucepan and lightly drizzle with some of the olive oil.
3. Meanwhile, place ½ T of oil in a frying pan and sauté leeks on low heat until soft (about 10mins). Add garlic, cook for 1 min. Add stock and cook for 8-10mins until most of the liquid has evaporated. Add peas and courgettes, cook for 2 mins.
4. To the pasta, add vegetable mix, cooked chicken, milk, cottage cheese and herbs. Mix gently to combine and season with pepper to taste. Spoon mixture into loaf tin.
5. Combine cheese, a drizzle of olive oil and seeds, nuts or breadcrumbs. Spread evenly over pasta mix.
6. Bake in the oven for 20-25mins or until golden and crisp on top.

Serving Suggestion

Serve with steamed broccoli or fresh baby spinach.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A MEANINGFUL FUNERAL

Funeral services have always been a part of life. Until 2020 that is. When Covid hit, suddenly funerals were not allowed and it was hard. Many people lost loved ones, some were prepared for the loss, for others it was unexpected. Either way, our primal need to grieve and engage in the ritual of a funeral was denied. The effects of this situation are now being seen across the country, and indeed across the world.

The human race have held funerals since the beginning of time and they play an extremely important role in the grief journey. They allow us to face the reality of our loss, support family and friends and to be supported by them, express our feelings and emotions and to begin the transition to a life without our loved one.

Now, more than ever, we are realising the importance of a funeral for those left behind. Pre-planning your funeral can bring comfort and peace of mind to your and to your family. It also ensures that you get the goodbye you wanted.

Pre planning is free and at Davis Funerals, we make it as simple as possible. Contact us today and one of our professional, experienced funeral directors can guide you in creating the perfect send off. You can call us on 638 9026, email office@davisfunerals.co.nz or call in to any of our five branches across Auckland.

Bowel Screening Test A Life Saver

The free bowel screening test can quite literally be a life-saver, by finding symptoms of bowel cancer early when it can often be successfully treated.

The National Bowel Screening Programme is available to people aged 60 to 74 years living across Auckland.

Around 100 New Zealanders die from bowel cancer each month, but bowel screening every two years can help save lives. A positive test can lead to a colonoscopy which may find and remove pre-cancerous polyps or detect bowel cancer at an early stage.

Testing is done at home using a bowel screening test kit received through the mail. The kit is simple and clean to do and is returned by post.

Anyone who is eligible to participate should automatically receive an invitation in the mail. However, it's really important your Doctor has your up-to-date address so if you think you may be eligible and have not been sent bowel screening test kit in the last two years please call 0800 924 432.

Please note: If you do have unusual bowel symptoms, don't wait to be screened – please contact your Doctor immediately.

For more information about the bowel screening programme call Freephone 0800 924 432 or visit www.timetoscreen.nz

Guaranteeing Somebody Else's Debt

Sometimes a bank will only provide credit to a customer if someone else provides a guarantee. If you agree to be a guarantor for a borrower, the bank can require you to pay the borrower's debts if they default on their repayments.

Guarantees can be complex. Lending to family or acting as a guarantor should never be undertaken without due consideration and legal advice from your lawyer or financial advisor.

It should never be undertaken under duress or at risk to your own financial security. If you are concerned that you are being coerced into making a financial decision that is not in your best interests contact our Elder Abuse Response Team on 820 0184 to discuss this.

If you are already a guarantor and have any concerns, contact the Banking Ombudsman office, the bank directly, or your lawyer, as soon as possible. The following is intended as a guide only.

I have been asked to guarantee someone's debts. What should I do?

You should take independent legal advice and think carefully before agreeing to be a guarantor. If a bank has asked for a guarantee it may indicate the borrower does not meet the bank's lending criteria or the bank thinks the borrower may default on the lending. You should ask yourself the following questions.

1. Do you know if the person asking you to guarantee their loan has the ability to service and repay the loan?
2. Do you know what their credit history is like?
3. Do you know if the borrower already has other obligations to the bank? Do you know the extent of their obligations?
4. Is the borrower likely to let you know if they start to find it difficult to keep up with their obligations? Are they likely to keep you informed if their obligations increase, eg if they take out further lending?
5. Could you afford to meet all of the borrower's obligations?
6. Can you assist the borrower in another way?

I have already guaranteed somebody else's loan – what does this mean?

If you have guaranteed a borrower's debts and the borrower defaults on their lending, the bank can require you to pay the borrower's debts.

Your situation as a guarantor will be determined largely by provisions in the guarantee.

What is the extent of lending I am agreeing to guarantee?

Most guarantees are unlimited in amount and guarantee 'all obligations' of the borrower. This means the debt you guarantee may include lending that exists at the time the guarantee is provided, plus all of the borrower's obligations to the bank on an on-going basis. This could include further lending, credit card debts and overdrafts. You can ask for your guarantee to be limited to a specified amount, but the bank does not have to agree to the guarantee being limited.

Can I cancel the guarantee?

Generally speaking, you can cancel a guarantee at any time. However, this does not release you from the guarantee. The cancellation only freezes your liability at the amount of the guaranteed debt when you asked for it to be cancelled. Even after you do this, the bank can require you to pay the guaranteed debt that existed at the time you cancelled the guarantee (including any interest and costs). If you cancel a guarantee, the bank may require the borrower to provide alternative security.

Will the bank tell me if the borrower is not meeting their obligations?

Being called on as a guarantor may be the first time a guarantor is made aware of the borrower's financial difficulties. This is not uncommon. Generally speaking, lenders are not obliged to notify guarantors of a borrower's financial difficulties. In fact, the bank could be in breach of its duty of confidentiality to the borrower if it did so. The only exception would be if the guarantee has specific provisions all parties agree to for the bank to notify the guarantor. However, you can ask the bank to advise you of the guaranteed debt amount at any time.

Could a bank require me to repay all the debt before asking the borrower or other guarantors to repay the debt?

The bank does not have to pursue the borrower for the debt. Once the borrower is in default the bank has the right to pursue you as guarantor. Generally speaking, if more than one guarantor has guaranteed the borrower's debts, the bank can choose who to pursue. The bank also has the right to require only one guarantor pay the full amount of the guaranteed debt. In some circumstances you may be able to pursue the other guarantors to obtain their contribution to the debt. This is not always straightforward and you should seek legal advice.

If the bank also has a mortgage as security for the debt, could it require me to pay when it could sell that property instead?

A bank does not have to realise any securities it holds before requiring you to repay the guaranteed debt. However, if you pay the guaranteed debt, you may be entitled to claim against securities held by the creditor in respect of the debt.

What happens if I do not pay or cannot pay?

If you have an account with the same bank as the borrower, it may take funds from your account. Most guarantees provide that any security you have provided to the bank is security for your obligations as guarantor. This means if the bank has a mortgage over your home, it could take steps as mortgagee to sell the property to satisfy your obligations as guarantor. If you have not provided security to the bank, it could sue you through the courts for payment of the guaranteed debt.

Do I have any remedies against the borrower?

You may be able to encourage the borrower to pay the amount required to the bank. However, the borrower may not have the financial ability to do so. Once you have paid the guaranteed debt, you may be able to assume any rights the bank has against the borrower, including a claim to any security such as a mortgage.

When I agreed to be a guarantor I did not understand what I was signing and what my obligations would be. What can I do?

If you feel you were not properly advised about the guarantee or were pressured into agreeing to it, you should seek legal advice or contact the Banking Ombudsman.

Asian Services Update

Supporting Korean Speaking Older People to get the COVID-19 Vaccination

Age Concern Auckland worked in partnership with the Korean Positive Aging Charitable Trust to support Korean seniors aged 65 and over to get their COVID-19 vaccination. We provided language support and help to get through the process, including accompanying them to the vaccination centre.

New classes introduced at our Positive Ageing Centre. Jenny, who coordinates our Positive Ageing Centre in Takapuna has introduced some new classes recently. This includes weekly Tai Chi classes. Tai Chi is an amazing way to improve your overall health and wellbeing.

There is also a new baking class, where attendees get to bake something delicious and then share it for morning tea. The baking classes provide the opportunity to learn new recipes, socialise and discuss and share experiences and wisdom that will help other group members.

Special activity. A workshop was held to discuss "If memory loss is related to Dementia or Ageing?" to raise awareness of brain health. We invited older people and their carers and also volunteers to join the workshop. Our team member, Mandy Ho, described dementia symptoms using practical examples. She also demonstrated the techniques of communication to carers who are taking care of older people with dementia.

Three volunteers shared their valuable Visiting Service experience and the techniques they use to communicate with older people diagnosed with dementia. The volunteers encouraged other people to join our Visiting Service, outlining that it is very meaningful volunteer work.

Finally, our team member, Money, talked about "Elder Abuse". It is very important as elder abuse cases are common and may be hidden in the community. Money emphasised that older people should speak out and ask for support if this has happened to them.

Our thanks to Chinese Alliance Christian Church (CACC) for providing the venue and delicious meal for this workshop. The workshop was held in the evening, so as many people as possible could attend. It would have been impossible for us to hold this successful workshop without the support of CACC.

Visiting Service

Every picture tells a story. Thanks to our amazing Visiting Service volunteers and the older people they visit who shared these gorgeous photos of their wonderful memories.

Our team of staff and volunteers always put older people at the heart of everything we do. Below are two hand-made gifts made for older people with dementia that we are working with. The gifts are to help with memory and thought processes.

A puzzle map of China was gifted to an older man who had travelled around China. The gentleman was very excited to do the puzzle which prompted memories of previous journeys.

A Calendar, which helps the older gentleman to organise his daily routine easily in a systematic way.

Felix Lin – our new Asian Services Manager

We recently welcomed Felix Lin as our new Asian Services Manager. Felix comes to Age Concern Auckland from Independent Living Charitable Trust (ILCT), where he spent the past 7 years. Felix was attracted to the role at Age Concern Auckland because he is passionate about actively supporting ethnic communities as well as those people who are disabled, isolated, and neglected.

Felix is currently working part time at Age Concern Auckland, and part time in the Epsom electorate office for our Member of Parliament. Felix's role at the electorate office is mainly helping constituents to deal with different issues, including social housing, rest homes, health related issues etc.

Felix has a great understanding of services provided across Auckland and has dedicated himself to becoming a navigator for all Chinese (and other Asian) people who require assistance and support to access the services and support they need.

Felix speaks fluent Cantonese, Mandarin and English which means that he can help and inform clients using the language they are most comfortable with, and this helps to ensure that clients are fully informed and are aware of their options and rights.

Western Quilters' Circle

These gorgeous quilts were donated by Western Quilters' Circle Inc. for Age Concern to gift to older people we are working with. You can feel the joy and gratitude when our volunteers distribute the quilts. Our special thanks to the Western Quilters' Circle for their wonderful support and kindness.

His own experience and working with ILCT made Felix aware of gaps in the health system with DHBs and service providers, especially for non-English speakers. This motivated Felix to begin creating network groups around Auckland with the goal of connecting Mandarin and/or Cantonese speaking representatives of Government Agencies, NGOs, and community leaders, to ensure the Chinese community understands what services are available and how to access them. Felix also set up a free information platform, where he edited existing information himself to ensure it was accessible for non-English speakers.

Felix is a disability information support advisory member at Counties Manukau District Health Board, a JP, the Chairperson of the Northshore Chinese Network Group, Chairperson of Central Auckland Chinese Network Group, a key member of East-South Auckland Health Connect; Vice president of New Zealand Jiangmen Wuyi Youth Association and organises a group of 310 people to play badminton each week.

Talking about his commitment to the community Felix says, "All these were purely because I saw the needs are there, and I will continuously look for the best solutions for New Zealanders. I am proud to be a New Zealander".

We are delighted to have Felix at Age Concern Auckland and can't wait to see the impact he has on our specialised Asian Services.

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day

To help bring awareness to Elder Abuse, Age Concern Auckland staff were out with NZ Police holding displays on World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. Our CEO Kevin Lamb was also interviewed by various media organisations about the risks, concerns and stigma attached to Elder Abuse and how we can try and combat this.

Age Concern Auckland has a team of experienced, trained Social Workers that work with older people and their families to investigate claims and support the victims of elder abuse. If you or someone you know is experiencing abuse, our services are private, confidential and free. You can speak to us confidentially by calling 820 0184.

RVA RELEASES A BLUEPRINT TO TAKE US FORWARD

The Retirement Commission's White paper advocating a review of retirement village legislation makes some valuable points, but the legislation framework protecting residents' consumer rights is robust and doesn't need a review. However, the RVA accepts that some aspects of operators' commercial terms could be improved and clarified, and we have issued a Blueprint to do exactly that.

In particular, the blueprint includes providing residents with a stronger voice, strengthening the complaints process and working with the CFFC to monitor re-licensing times so best practice standards can be developed.

The first major change is the appointment of an Independent Member to the RVA's Executive Committee to ensure that the residents' voice is heard. We are delighted that the Hon Tracey Martin, a former Minister for Seniors has accepted our invitation to step into that role. One of Tracey's first jobs is to chair a series of consultation meetings with resident committee chairs to discuss the various proposals to improve some of the commercial terms.

Slow re-licensing times that mean outgoing residents' families have to wait for their payment is a source of ongoing concern. As part of the blueprint, the RVA will survey all members annually to examine emerging trends and work with stakeholders to design a best practice approach to re-licensing that reflects the reality of the local real estate market, yet ensures residents' estates do not wait an unreasonable period of time for a refund.

The blueprint also sets out plans to review Occupation Rights Agreements (ORAs) to address any perceived unfair terms or confusing clauses and ensure clarity around what the resident and operator are responsible for, in particular, repairs, maintenance and replacement of operator-owned chattels.

We will work with our members, residents and the Retirement Commissioner to identify best practice for future ORAs which define each party's responsibilities, so that residents are not responsible for usual maintenance and replacement of operator-owned chattels, whilst protecting operators from bearing the cost of making good resident abuse or damage to chattels.

We're pleased that already some operators have moved towards this position and we anticipate the majority of operators will follow quickly.

Last year, the RVA signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Retirement Village Residents Association of New Zealand to work together on issues. These include guidelines on dealing with the media, ensuring complaints raised via either organisation are dealt with expeditiously and fairly, implementing a comprehensive village manager training programme, and regular meetings between both the RVA and the RVRA's Executive Committees.

How to solve sudoku puzzles. No math is required to solve a sudoku. You only need logic and patience. Simply make sure that each 3x3 square region has only one instance of the numbers 1-9. Similarly, each number can only appear once in a column or row in the larger grid. The difficulty on this puzzle is easy.

Film Review: La Strada by Federico Fellini

It was in my first two years at Elam that I went to the Lido to see my first Federico Fellini film. What a revelation! What a film-maker! What a lover of Italian life! What a lover more particularly of Roman life!

La Strada (1954) was the film and it gave me an enduring memory of one actresses performance that has surpassed any other in my life. This is with the possible exception of the fabulous performance by the French actress Isabelle Huppert in the film 'The Piano Teacher' directed by Michael Haneke in 2001. However, before I come back to La Strada I should mention other stunning Fellini films that followed this masterpiece that I have been witness to, namely La Dolce Vita 8 1/2, Juliet of the Spirits, Satyricon, Roma, and Amarcord. All these films were very much self-portraits, but the extent of their human reach was often beyond comprehension.

La Strada tells the story of Gelsomina, a simple-minded young woman (Giulietta Masina) bought from her mother by Zampano (Anthony Quinn), a brutish strongman, who takes her with him on the road.

The film won an Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film, and was described by Fellini as having been 'inspired' by Masina's humanity (Masina was Fellini's wife in real life, and acted in a number of his films). Italian film historian Bondanella described Masina's work as 'masterful' and 'unforgettable'. Charlie Chaplin, with whose work Masina's is often compared, called her 'the actress who moved him most.' (I have taken this paragraph of quotes from Wikipedia because they so accurately describe responses to Masina's performance in La Strada.)

Masina's performance left me in tears. Its display of humanity and pathos was beyond belief. It was at a level of acting performance that stepped outside the screen and reached into your heart and massaged it. It spoke for what humanity could be with a greater understanding of empathy, suffering, and compassion. I can visualise Masina's performance as I write, and in fact I looked at a few clips on You Tube beforehand. The power of her performance is timeless and a testament to the human spirit in adversity. It was an artistic masterpiece, and one that lived/s with you.
